Where is German taught in WA?

The German language has existed in Western Australia since roughly the 1850s. It has been taught as a foreign language in a number of schools over the years: public, private, primary, secondary, tertiary and by private organisations offering evening classes to both adults and children. The list below outlines the schools and institutions which currently offer German language classes in Western Australia. (Last revision: 25 March 2020)
